

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

NEW LUMIQUEST FXtra GEL HOLDER WITH 8 ROSCO GELS

NEW BRAUNFELS, Texas—July 8, 2008

The new LumiQuest FXtra is a compact gel holder that facilitates a quick installation and removal of colored gels.

The FXtra will include the following eight Rosco gels: CTO, 1/2 CTO, 1/4 CTO, Plus Green, 1/2 Plus Green, Sky Blue, Canary Yellow and Fire Red. “We included a starter set of the most popular Rosco gels used in photography,” said Quest Couch, LumiQuest Chairman and product designer.

The design of the FXtra includes an integrated storage pouch to accommodate the 8 included Roscoe gels and additional Roscoe and Lee gel samples that a photographer might have. In addition, any LumiQuest accessory can be attached while the FXtra is in place allowing the photographer to colorize the light while using a variety of light modifiers. The FXtra is sized to fit most popular flashes. The FXtra is made in the USA of recycled and recyclable materials. It will be available in August at authorized LumiQuest dealer or by visiting www.lumiquest.com. The suggested retail price is $19.95.
